But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness

EXPERIENCING LACK?

Let's See What the Word of God Says

And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you.

That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

| Thessalonians 4:11&12

The Importance of Money Management

Our desire for youth (and adults) is to teach examples of money management. God does not want us to be in debt. Debt is bondage that keeps us from being used in the Kingdom of God.

We want to help you with money management, but first we have to give you some homework...yes, homework. It's not common to find a homework assignment in a newsletter. Let us explain. Before you can make steps toward managing your money, you must first understand your current money story. In simpler terms, you have to know how much money you have, how much money you are spending, and what you are spending it on.

Your assignment for this month:

Mental/Spiritual Homework

- Acknowledge that you need God's help in this area
- Commit to completing all parts of this assignment
- Be open to what the assignments will show you about yourself

Physical Homework

- Get receipts for everything and keep a log of how much you are spending and what you are buying

If you would like to receive a spreadsheet to help you please contact us at www.royalpmi.org and we will send one to you.

In our next e-newsletter we will give you the steps you should take after completing your list and offer practical biblical insight on improving your money story.

Quotable Quotes

"Dollars have never been known to produce character, and character will never be produced by money."
